

By N Manley, Michael

Three women who were close to former Prime Minister Michael Manley who died on March 6, sharing thoughts about his life and times, at the meeting of the National Committee convened by Prime Minister P.J. Patterson to plan the State Funeral. They are from left: Deputy Supt. of Police, Rosie McDonald-Barker who headed Mr. Manley's security detail; Mrs. Corina Meeks, a former press secretary to Prime Minister Manley, and Rachel Manley, his daughter. ■

- Dennis Coke

These labourers were busy this week cleaning the area and whitewashing the tombs at the National Heroes Park in preparation for the official burial of former Prime Minister Michael Manley. The funeral service will be held at the Holy Trinity Cathedral on North Street, Kingston this Sunday beginning at 2:00 p.m. ■

Rachel and Joseph Manley comforting each other as they mourn the loss of their father, Michael Manley, former Prime Minister of Jamaica who died last Thursday night. ■