

MANLEY'S

FAREWELL

Mrs. Beverley Anderson-Manley with her children David and Natasha, as well as a granddaughter of Mr. Michael Manley, waiting to join the funeral procession to National Heroes Park. ■

Prime Minister P. J. Patterson and dignitaries escorting the bier along North Street. ■

B/W - Manley, Michael

PHOTOGRAPH BY J. J. JAMAICA

THE GLEANER • Monday, March 17, 1997

THE GLEANER

B/W - Manly - Michael
National Library of Jamaica

Cuban President Dr. Fidel Castro (centre), flanked by his bodyguards, raising his hand in a fist to acknowledge the cheers of the crowd.■

Former Venezuelan President Carlos Andres Perez (right) being escorted into the Holy Trinity Cathedral.■

Nation of Islam leader Minister Louis Farrakhan is carefully guarded by his security officers.■

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF JAMAICA

B/V- Manley, Michael

PHOTOS: GLEANER STAFF PHOTOGRAPHERS

Haitian President Rene Preval (left) arriving for the state funeral.■

Leader of the Opposition Mr. Edward Seaga and Mrs. Seaga are assisted up the steps of the Holy Trinity Cathedral.■

National Democratic Movement (NDM) president, Bruce Golding, and Mrs. Golding making their entrance ■

President of the Bustamante Industrial Trade Union (BITU) and former Prime Minister Hugh Shearer (right) and Mr. Mike Henry (left), Jamaica Labour Party (JLP) Member of Parliament Central Clarendon, join mourners on their way inside the Holy Trinity Cathedral.■

Mr. Lester Bird (left), Prime Minister of Antigua and Barbuda and chairman of CARICOM, being escorted by Lt. Col. Bruce Barclay of the Jamaica Defence Force (JDF).■

B/M - manley, michael

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF JAMAICA

With precision and in perfect co-ordination these members of the Jamaica Defence Force dressed in ceremonial attire, hoisted the coffin bearing the remains of former Prime Minister Michael Manley who was laid to rest on Sunday at the National Heroes Park. ■