

UWI News Note ✓ ■
Sept. 1990 - Feb 1991

NETTLEFORD RECEIVES PELICAN AWARD

Professor the Hon. Rex Nettleford, O.M. Pro Vice Chancellor for Outreach and Institutional Relations has been named the 1990 recipient of the UWI Guild of Graduates Pelican Award.

The Award was presented at a luncheon ceremony held at the Jamaica Pegasus Hotel on Friday November 2.

The Guild of Graduates' Pelican Award is presented annually in recognition of meritorious service to the University and the Guild, or to members of the Guild who have achieved distinction in the academic field, in industry, business, the public service, research or sport.

Professor Nettleford, who is also Director of the School of Continuing Studies, has an outstanding reputation as scholar, trade unionist and for his contribution to Jamaican culture. He has published widely, his most recent publication being "The University of the West Indies: A Caribbean Response to the Challenge of Change" which he co-authored with Sir Philip Sherlock.