

FAREWELL CALL: Governor-General, the Most Hon. Sir Florizel Glasspole, leafs through an album with pictures of the city of Jerusalem from Biblical times to the present, which was presented to him by the Israeli Ambassador, Mr. Moshe Melamed (right). Occasion was a farewell call on the Governor-General by Mr. Melamed, at King's House yesterday morning. In the afternoon Mr. Melamed and his wife, were guests of honour at a luncheon hosted by the Governor-General at King's House. Mr. Melamed who leaves on Friday, July 17, for Belgium was stationed in Jamaica for three years. He was also accredited to Barbados, Grenada and Dominica. He described his tour of duty in Jamaica as "most enjoyable."

- Bell photo

The Daily Gleaner, July 26, 1981

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF JAMAICA