

Queen hails G-G on 75th birthday

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has sent a personal message of congratulations to the Governor General, His Excellency the Most Honourable Sir Florizel Glasspole, on the attainment of his 75th birthday, today.

The Queen's message says: "Many congratulations on your 75th birthday. The Duke of Edinburgh joins me in sending you many happy returns and warm best wishes to you, Lady Glasspole and your family.

"Elizabeth R."

Sir Florizel told the Gleaner that he was very proud at attaining this birthday "as I have worked hard all my life, and I am still fit and able to do my work. I am departing from my regular routine and taking things easy on this special day."

At Kings House at 12 noon the Governor General will celebrate his birthday with a small group of relatives and friends. The Support Company of the Jamaica Defence Force will provide a 21-Gun Salute.
