WITH FAIRPLAY AND INTEGRITY...': There was much fun and laughter as members of the Cabinet greeted His Excellency the Most Honourable Sir Florizel Glasspole (3rd left) at Jamaica House yesterday to honour him at a luncheon for his 15 years of service to the country as Governor General. Prime Minister Seaga described His Excellency as a symbol "of fair play, impartiality, integrity and dedication to the people of Jamaica." And Sir Florizel in his reply said he had done his work with "every inch of honesty, endeavouring at all times to hold the scales evenly between the two parties," and, to conduct himself in a manner which commanded the respect of both parties and the nation. In picture, from left: Dr. Percival Broderick, Minister of Agriculture; Dr. Neville Gallimore, Minister of Education; Senator Hugh Hart (partly hidden), Minister of Mining, Energy and Tourism; Senator Oswald Harding, Minister of Justice; Prime Minister Seaga, Mr. Edmund Bartlett, Minister of Youth and Community Development; and Mr. Hugh Shearer, Minister of Industry, Commerce, Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade. All twelve members of the Cabinet were at the luncheon.
