FORMER Governor General, Sir Florizel Glasspole, who was accompanied by Lady Glasspole, listens intently to a tribute paid to him yesterday by Gladys Ellington, associate who worked closely with him from 1938 to 1973. Occasion was a thanksgiving and appreciation service for Sir Florizel who served as Member of Parliament for the East Kingston and Port Royal constituency prior to becoming Governor General. The service was held at the Pentecostal Gospel Temple, 111 Windward Road in Kingston. Among those in attendance were Prime Minister Michael Manley who is the current M.P. for that constituency; Minister of Information and Culture, Dr. Paul Robertson and Minister of Justice, Mr. Carl Rattray.
