NEW CHAIRMAN OF JLP:

Mr. Bruce Golding, Minister of Construction, was yesterday unanimously elected chairman of the Jamaica Labour Party by the Party's Central Executive at a meeting at the JLP's headquarters, Belmont Road, Kingston. Mr. Golding, who has been the party's general secretary for the last 10 years, was elected unopposed. He will give up the general secretaryship to take up the job of chairman. A new secretary is to be elected at a subsequent meeting of the Central Executive, a news release from the JLP stated. The Executive Committee also recorded its appreciation of Dr. Ronald Irvine's long service to the JLP. Dr. Irvine, who resigned as party chairman, remains a member of the JLP.
