BOB MARLEY MUSEUM OPENS: Prime Minister Seaga, (left), yesterday cutting the ribbon formally opening the Bob Marley Museum at 56 Hope Road, Kingston. The opening of the museum marks the fifth anniversary of the death of the Jamaican reggae music king. Left of Mr. Seaga are (partly hidden) Marley's widow, Mrs. Rita Marley, his mother, Mrs. Cedella Booker, Archbishop Yesehaq of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church, and Senator Olivia Grange, Parliamentary Secretary in the Office of the Prime Minister. The museum portrays Marley's life and achievements through artefacts, memorabilia, numerous writings and photographs.
