Huie exhibition

25 MAY 1979

opens tonight

A retrospective exhibition of the paintings of Albert Huie will be declared open tonight by Edna Manley at the National Gallery of Jamaica.

The exhibition of 121 works, all selected from Jamaican collections, covers a period of 44 years and surveys the wide range of Huie's subjects: the Jamaican landscape, portraits, nudes, figurative compositions and still life studies.

The exhibition opens to the public on Saturday and continues until July 28.
