

OLIVER SAMUELS

Samuels for US

course

Oliver Samuels, Regional Cultural Officer with the Social Development Commission and one of Jamaica's most talented actors, has been selected to participate in a regional project sponsored by the United States International Communication Agency.

Among Mr. Samuels' major interests is the observation of community theatre projects, especially those projects focussing on black theatre in community development efforts.