Memorable Moments

Writing his last speech in the wee hours of the morning at home.

Memorable Moments

Edward Seaga, former member of parliament and leader of the Jamaica Labour Party, commanded respect and was a statesman of unrivalled devotion during his 43 years of service to Jamaica. Photographer Peter Dean Rickards captured Mr Seaga in many moods as he prepared for his last day in Gordon House.

Seaga steps down from his vehicle to enter Gordon House for the last time. The man holding the door is his trusted bodyguard, Inspector Osbourne.
