

The Star, August 12, 1988

BIN - SEAGA, Edward

P.M. gets '1987 Man of Caribbean' award

PRIME Minister Edward Seaga was due earlier today to have received the "Golden Star of the Caribbean" Award which named him as the "Man of the Caribbean for 1987.

The resolution for the award was due to have been presented to Mr. Seaga at Jamaica House at 12 noon, by Mr. Marcus DeCordova, Editor of Cuenca del Caribe Magazine (Caribbean Basin) and a member of the Board of directors of the Caribbean Star.

The Golden Star Award was created by the Cuenca del Caribe to honour each year, the person most prominent for his or her efforts in benefit of one of the more countries in the Caribbean Basin.

The first recipient of the award was the Hon. Rafael Hernandez-Colon, Governor of Puerto Rico.

Prime Minister Seaga was unanimously selected by the Board of Directors of the Caribbean Star to receive the 1987 award.