

University of Tampa degree for PM

The Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Prime Minister, the Rt. Hon. Edward Seaga, by the University of Tampa, Florida, last week Thursday.

14 DEC 1982

The presentation was made by Dr. Richard D. Cheshire, President of the University, at the close of the University's "Forecast '83" forum at which Mr. Seaga was guest speaker.

In a citation read by Mr. William J. Turberville, a trustee of the University, Prime Minister Seaga was lauded as a "political leader whose reaffirmation of democracy and free enterprise in the Caribbean has earned him worldwide respect; a leader whose humanitarianism is exemplified in the many social and economic programmes he has authored and supported in the cause of human growth and development in an emerging nation; a leader whose belief in and commitment to higher education ... is evident in his friendship to the University of Tampa".
