

TOASTING THE GREAT 'CUDDY' WALSH

Courtney Walsh (left) accepts a crystal globe from Tony Becca, president Melbourne Cricket Club, to culminate yesterday's proceedings which served to honour the Jamaica and West Indies fast bowling great for breaking Test cricket's world record for the most wickets. On Monday, Walsh eclipsed India's Kapil Dev's 434 mark to become the new record holder with 435. ■

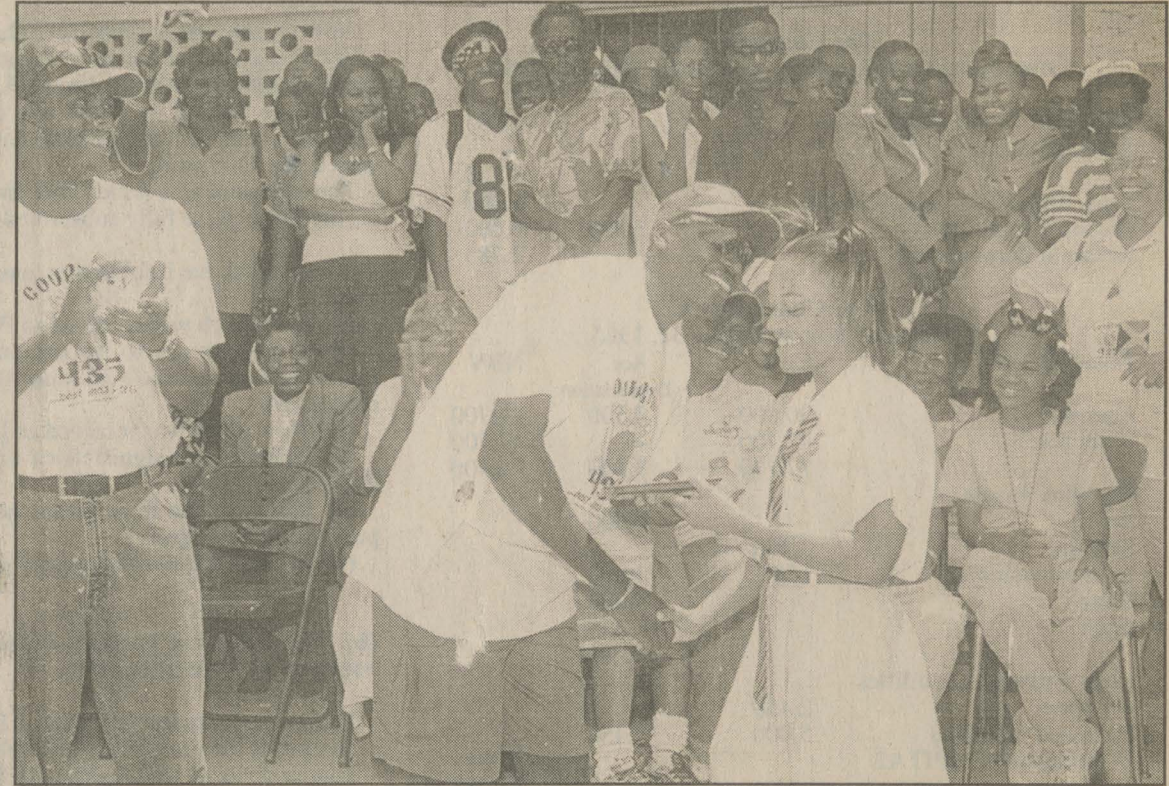

These kids cheer on Walsh as the motorcade passes by Excelsior High. ■

BH - Walsh, Courtney

Excelsior High students from Whiteman House, champions at their annual Sports Day, perform at a ceremony hosted for Walsh at the Courtney Walsh Oval, which was named after the great fast bowler who attended the institution. ■

Excelsior's head girl Cornelia Kenwood presents West Indies batsman, Chris Gayle, with a plaque. Gayle, like Walsh (left) is a past student of Excelsior High. ■