

Local Novel Gets Top Billing In 'Life And Letters'

Chapters from a novel on Jamaica, "New Day" by Victor Reid, are receiving top billing in London advertisements of the March issue of "Life and Letters" (The London Mercury). This is a magazine in which was first published a best seller of decades ago "A High Wind In Jamaica."

A footnote to the extract from "New Day" explains that the book is still in the course of writing and should be ready by the Spring of this year
