

INSTITUTE OF
WEST INDIA REFERENCE

Fellowship to Vic Reid

Gleaner Federal Bureau
PORT OF SPAIN, July 28:

(Mr. Victor (Vic) Stafford Reid, Jamaican novelist, has been awarded a Canada Council Fellowship, offered to the West Indies for 1958-59, it was announced by the Hon. Phyllis Allfrey, Federal Minister of Labour and Social Services through the Federal Information Service today.

The fellowship will enable Mr. Reid to confer with writers and students in consultation with the Canadian Association for Adult Education.

Mr. Reid has had a fine career as a writer. He is the author of "New Day" and "The Leopard", published this year.

This is the first award of a Canada Council Fellowship to a West Indian national.

National Library of Jamaica

DG July 30, 1958.

Daily Gleaner, July 30, 1958.