

B/N Allan, Lady

National Library of Jamaica

COMINGS and GOINGS

I TENDER MY condolence to Lady Allan, whose mother, Mrs. Alice Trotman, died on Tuesday evening at Lady Allan's Stony Hill residence.

Mrs. Trotman was an ardent church and social worker, and she will be greatly missed by all those to whom she devoted her services so unselfishly.

Mr. George Pascoe of Seymour Avenue died on Sunday. After 44 years with the Jamaica Government Railway, Mr. Pascoe retired as Office Superintendent, and was free to devote himself to his great nieces and nephews, and his beloved garden. He would surely have appreciated the wealth of beautiful flowers which were sent to his home after he died, for they included several magnificent wreaths of orchids, snapdragons, asters in profusion, roses and Bermuda lilies.

* * * * *

Sunday Cleaner Jan. 25, 1959.