allen, Edwin

School to be re-named in honour of Edwin Allen

The Minister of Education, Hon. Dr. Mavis Gilmour, will attend a function at the Comprehensive High School in Frankfield tomorrow, at 2 p.m. when she will declare the name of the school changed to "Edwin Allen Comprehensive High School" in honour of its founder, a former Minister of Education, who died on Sunday, February 19, and was buried at Frankfield on Monday, February 26.

The Minister of Education Montego Bay, will be guest speaker. Certificates and prizes will be distributed by High School at Frankfield was the first of its kind in the island. Established in 1964 by the Hon. Edwin Allen, then Minister of Education, as a pilot project to provide Secondary, Technical and Vocational education to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield Primary and Kilsyth Primary 26.

The ceremony to of the Ministry of Education of the Ministry of Education to the Comprehensive High School at Frankfield was the first of its kind in the island. Established in 1964 by the Minister of Education, as a pilot project to provide Secondary, Technical and Vocational education to children by the Principal, Mr. F. C. Latty.

The Comprehensive High School at Frankfield was the first of its kind in the island. Established in 1964 by the High School at Frankfield was the first of its kind in the island. Established in 1964 by the Mon. Edwin Allen, then Minister of Education, as a pilot project to provide Secondary, Technical and Vocational education to children by the Principal, Mr. F. C. Latty.

The Comprehensive High School at Frankfield was the first of its kind in the island. Established in 1964 by the Hon. Edwin Allen, then Minister of Education, as a pilot project to provide Secondary, Technical and Vocational education to children by the Principal, Mr. F. C. Latty.

The Comprehensive High School at Frankfield was the first of its kind in the island. Established in 1964 by the Mr. Clifton Stone.

Daily Gleanet

win Allen Comprehensive High School in honour of its founder, a former Minister of Education, who died on Sunday, February 19, and was buried at Frankfield on Monday, February 26.

The ceremony to mark the change of name of the school will follow the annual Speech Day and Prize-Giving exercises at which Mr. Simon Clarke, Principal of the Clarke, Principal of the Clarke, Principal of the Clarke in Minister of Education, as a pilot project to provide Secondary, Technical and Vocational education to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield Primary and Kilsyth Primary and Kilsyth Primary and Kilsyth Primary of Education, to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Frankfield montation to children by transfer from two feeder schools — Fra

MATIONAL LIBRARY OF JAMAICA

Heb 17, 1984 pol