

- Winston Sill

There is something mutual between friends Churchill Neita (left), chairman of INSPORT, Olympian Herb McKenley (centre), and Earl Moore, vice-president for sales and marketing at the Mutual Life Assurance Society, at a function to honour Mr. McKenley at the Pegasus Hotel on Tuesday night. Mr. McKenley, who was recently named ambassador-at-large, was being honoured by the sporting fraternity for his continued exemplary work in sport.