

Queen sends message to Lady B on her birthday

Lady Bustamante, widow of National Hero, Sir Alexander Bustamante, is celebrating a birthday today.

The following message was sent to Lady B by Sir Robert Fellowes, the Queen Private Secretary.

"The Queen has heard with much pleasure that your birthday is to be most suitably celebrated in Jamaica on March 8. Her Majesty has commanded me to send you congratulations and maby happy returns of the day."