

B/N Cooke, Sir Howard

PROFILE

His Excellency
the Most Honourable
Sir Howard Cooke,
O.N., G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., C.D.

His Excellency the Most Honourable Sir Howard Felix Hanlan Cooke, O.N., G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., C.D., was born in Goodwill, St. James, on November 13, 1915. He is the son of David Brown Cooke and Mary Jane Minto. He was educated at elementary and private schools, Mico College and London University.

On July 22, 1939, he married Ivy Sylvia Lucille Tai, and from this union there are two sons, the Honourable Mr. Justice Howard Fitz-Arthur Cooke, Puisne Judge, and Mr. Richard Washington McDermott Cooke, Hotelier; and one daughter, Miss Audrey Faith Cooke, Consultant in International Affairs in Canada.

CAREER

For 23 years he served as a teacher, starting at Mico College and Practising School; he later served as headmaster at Belle Castle All-Age School, Port Antonio Upper School, and Montego Bay Boys' School. He was a member and former president of the Jamaica Union of Teachers.

During the course of his career, he also served in the insurance industry in the following positions: Senior Inspector and Branch Manager, Standard Life Insurance Company; Unit Manager, Jamaica Mutual Life; Branch Manager, American Life Insurance Company (ALICO).

POLITICAL LIFE

Sir Howard entered politics in 1938 as one of the founding members of the People's National Party. He has been a member of the Executive and the National Executive, chairman of the Regional Executive and chairman of the Party.

In 1958 he was elected to the West Indies Federal Parliament, as the representative for St. James.

He entered the Jamaican Parliament in 1962, and served as Senator until early 1967. He served as a member of the House of Representatives between 1967 and 1980, and was a minister of Government between 1972 and 1980. As Minister, he held, at different times, the portfolios of:

- Pension and Social Security
- Education
- Labour & the Public Service

He was president of the Senate from 1989 to 1991 and served on the Executive of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association.

INTERESTS

Sir Howard served as group scoutmaster and secretary for the St. Andrew Boys' Scout Association. He captained the County of Cornwall cricket team, and, at various times, was a member of the Mico College, Portland and St. James cricket teams. He was also a member of the Mico College, YMCA, Portland, and St. James football teams.

He assisted in the establishment of community centres in east Portland and various community organisations in his home parish, St. James

His interests also extend to Jamaican culture. For many years he was a member of the Jamaica Cultural Development Commission (JCDC), and was secretary and local chairman of the St. James Cultural Commission. He also judged in JCDC "Festival" competitions.

He is currently a senior elder and lay pastor in the United Church of Jamaica and the Cayman Islands, and is lay pastor and past chairman of the Cornwall Council of Churches. He is also a member of the Ancient Free and Accepted Order of Masons.

AWARDS

- 1978 — Commander of Distinction
- 1980 — Special Plaque for Distinguished Service from the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association
- 1991 — Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George (GCMG) — conferred on him by her majesty Queen Elizabeth II.
— Order of the Nation (ON)
- 1994 — Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order (GCVO) — conferred on him by her majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

His Excellency was installed as Governor-General of Jamaica at King's House on Thursday, August 1, 1991.

jis

Jamaica Information Service
58A Half-Way-Tree Road
Kingston 10, Jamaica.
Re-printed April 1997