

Grange's thoughts with Golding as he buries mom

MINISTER OF Youth, Sports and Culture Olivia Grange has paid tribute to the late Enid Golding, the mother of Prime Minister Bruce Golding, whose funeral is to be held today in Old Harbour, St Catherine.

"Mrs Enid Golding has made an invaluable contribution to the nation," said Grange, who also holds responsibility for gender affairs. "It is difficult to refer to her in the past, but she was that special kind of woman with a gentle touch, kindness of spirit, as well as strong and empowered."

Grange said Mrs Golding was the kind of

"Today, the thousands who were touched by Mrs Golding at Ginger Ridge Elementary, Watermount Elementary, Alpha Academy, St Andrew High and Old Harbour Junior Secondary (now Old Harbour High) will remember the difference that she made in their lives," the minister said. Grange said this was a very difficult time for Prime Minister Golding and the rest of the family and that she wanted them to know her thoughts were with them.

Mrs Golding will be buried in Church Pen, St Catherine.
