

Huie's thanks

THE EDITOR, Sir:- I am grateful to you for all the kind things you have said of me in today's issue.

It's very rare, particularly in my line, that one enjoys such recognition in one's lifetime. I am constrained to say how lucky I am.

To realize I am not alone in this sad world is to be poised with confidence for the future.

Thank you very much.

I am, etc.,
