

Jamaican painting for Kingston, New York

Token gift from city of Kingston

A PAINTING of a Jamaican scene is to be presented to the Mayor of Kingston, New York, as a token gift from the City of Kingston.

The presentation will be made by Councillor Roy Woodham who will be visiting the United States shortly. He will call on the Mayor of Kingston, New York, to make the presentation.

The K.S.A.C. Finance Committee yesterday voted the necessary funds for the painting which will be done by Albert Huie, city artist.

At the end of August, Mr. Louis Di Donna, Attorney of Kingston, New York, handed the Acting Mayor, Councillor Lynden Newland, a medallion from Mr. Frederick H. Strang, Mayor of the American borough, on behalf of the citizens of the borough.
