Ten Years of Legal Deposit: A Bibliography 2004 -2014

Compiled by: Olivia Nisbett

National Library of Jamaica
Kingston, Jamaica
2016
Preface

The year 2014 marks ten (10) years since the Legal Deposit Act came into operation. To mark this occasion the National Library of Jamaica (NLJ), the designated principal legal depository, has compiled a bibliography of resources deposited to commemorate the 10 year anniversary.

Legal Deposit is the means by which a comprehensive national collection is gathered as a record of the nation’s published heritage and development. The Legal Deposit Act of 2002 mandates producers of published documents to deposit with the National Library of Jamaica two copies of a printed document and one (1) copy of an audio visual item.

The bibliography seeks to list all material that has been received by the National Library of Jamaica through Legal Deposit since October 2004; the year the act came into operation.

Arrangement

The entries in this bibliography are arranged alphabetically by author and title according to the years in which the items were received.

Exclusion

This volume does not include periodicals or audio visual items that were received through legal deposit.
