

'BABYLON' COMETH 25 NOV 1979

LEONIE FORBES as Dorcas, the housekeeper in a scene from the soon-to-be released Jamaican movie 'Children of Babylon' which premieres at the Carib Theatre on December 18. A photographic exhibition featuring stills from the movie will be opened at 11 a.m. next Sunday at John Peartree Gallery, by Senator Hopeton Caven, General Secretary of the Trade Union Congress. The exhibition features work by photographers Lennie Little-White, Franklyn St. Juste, Brian St. Juste and Richard Lannaman. The 20" x 24" colour stills on exhibit were all taken on location during filming of the feature. The exhibition will be mounted for one week only. 'Babylon' is a production of Mediamix Limited.