

ALLAN, Honourable Sir Harold Egbert, Kt., Bach., (1948) O.B.E., (1943) J.P. (1930); Legislator, Business-man, Planter and Sportsman; Member Honourable House of Representatives Eastern Portland since 1944; Re-elected 1949; Member Executive Council for Finance and General Purposes; since 1945; Elected Member for the Parish of Portland, Legislative Council 1935-44; Member Privy Council 1942-45; Founder-Secretary (since 1929) Association of Parochial Boards; Founder-Secretary, Elected Members Association, 1935-44; Proprietor and Manager Capitol Theatre, Port Antonio, since 1924; Member, Board of Education, Railway Advisory Board, Central Housing Authority, Jamaica Schools Commission, Agricultural Development Board, Agricultural Loan Societies Board, Board of Governors, Institute of Jamaica, Tourist Trade Development Board; also serves on the Wages Board, Civil Service Regrading, Postal, Telegraph, and Government Subordinate Employees Regrading Committees, Anomalies and Pensions Committees, Board of Visitors, Port Antonio Public Hospital, Central Board of Health, Unemployment Commission, Joint Consultative Council on Education, Practical Training Committee, Committee on Travelling Scholarships for Teachers, Executive Committee on Rehabilitation, since 1945; Hon. Member, Jamaica Cricket Association, since 1945; Joint Vice-President Jamaica Branch, Empire Parliamentary Association since 1945; Chairman W.I. Delegation to World Trade and Employment Conference in London, April, 1947; Member of the U.K. Delegation to World Trade and Employment Conference, Geneva, June 1947; Havana, Nov. 1947; b. Spring Bank, Portland, March 15, 1895, s. late Patrick Kerr Allan, Educator, and Charlotte Elizabeth Pearce, his wife; Ed. Calabar Elementary School, Mico College and by Private Tuition; Assistant Master, Calabar; Headmaster and Manual Instructor, Titchfield Upper School; Organizer, First All-Island Parish Cricket Competition; Founder of Allan Football Cup Competition; Introduced Cinematograph Exhibitions into Portland 1919; established the Local Burial and Benefit Society, 1924; Elected Member, Parochial Board, Portland 1926; Commissioner to Investigate labour disturbances at ~~Frome~~ 1938; Visited England later same year and interviewed Secretary of State for the Colonies, on conditions in Jamaica, and prepared for the Colonial Office a Memorandum dealing mainly with unemployment, Marketing of Produce, Education and Medical Facilities; Visited Bermuda 1938 and introduced Non-Residents' Business Law of Bermuda for adoption in Jamaica; Awarded Mico College Gold Medal (Meritorious Public Service) 1943; Represented Jamaica at first Anglo-American Caribbean Commission Conference, Barbados, March 1944; m. Feb. 12, 1941, Edris Elaine, d. Robert Henry Trotterman and Alice Feurtado, his wife; No issue; Visited Buckingham Palace, accompanied by his wife 20th July 1948 and received the accolade of Knighthood from His Majesty King George VI, also visited Buckingham Palace on Thursday 22nd July, 1949 and had an audience with His Majesty; Recreations: Cricket, Swimming, and Horse Racing; Address: Headquarters House, Kingston, 16 Waterloo Rd., Halfway Tree P.O., St. Andrew and "Prosect House", Port Antonio P.O., Portland.

BIN-ALLAN, HAROLD E